President's Column Bram's Ski Trails

Hi Everyone,

It is September already and we should be thinking about our ski plans. I know everyone on the Sly Fox Board is working very hard together to cover all the bases. All the trips are set, we have some new advertisers (and thanks very much to our renewal friends) we are working on getting some informational programs again this year and maybe a few surprises for all of you. Please stay tuned for that information and the dates to join in the fun at our monthly meetings. Our first meeting on Oct. 5th will be one of our biggest attended, this is the first day of sign-up for our trips. I really ask all of you to be patient with us and also PLEASE fill a trip sign-up sheet out for each trip and don't forget to sign your waivers and pay your dues when you sign up. The Gelandesprung club opened their trip a little early this summer. I know some of you were concerned that our trip prices were not in the August newsletter and could not plan your trips. I sure understand when we all know our trips fill fast and Green Bay club's trip opened in August. The board rushed to correct that and sent another updated emailed newsletter and updated the website to help everyone plan their skiing. I felt that this was important. We want to do the best job for all of you. Thanks you for your comments.

Now for the trips, don't forget the BIG SNOW trip, Indianhead/Blackjack, Jan. 6-8th to get those legs in shape. We certainly had great snow there last year and the trip includes just about all you need to eat so the only thing is money for additional refreshments. That will lead us to, STEAMBOAT COLORADO trip, Jan. 13-17th. This is a long weekend trip and we are staying at THE RANCH, we have stayed there before, it's great. The next trip is a favorite of our club, MARQUETTE MOUNTAIN, Feb. 17-19th, that again will include just about all you will need to eat. This year we are changing the place where we stay to the Ramada downtown. They assure me that this will be a great time especially with the dogsled races down the main street. Who knows what else will happen. That will also help you keep those legs in shape for the next trip, BEAVER CREEK COLORADO, March 24-31st. This is a great opportunity to stay in Beaver Creek Village in ski in-ski out Condos. It is beautiful and the people there are really helpful and friendly to the skiers. Don't forget a quick bus ride to Vail, skiing there is part of our ski pass. You certainly won't be disappointed, there's nothing that beats bluebird skies on the snow.

I want to again thank all of those members that recently switched to email newsletters. We want to run the club as efficiently as possible to be able to bring you affordable trips. Also your membership dues help to promote the club, the more members, the best prices for trips, and the longer we will be around. You should be very proud of your club, some ski clubs have difficulty filling their trips. We are always looking for new members too. Don't forget the Newcomers meeting on Oct. 19th, help welcome the potential and new members. Bring some photos to show those guests where we've been. Our next board meeting is Sept. 21st, (members welcome) 7PM at The Bar on Lynddale. Still some work to do but we will see all of you in October.

To the Summitt, Deb Bramschreiber

Wonewoc Wrap Up
by Jane Kurath

11 brave souls attended the annual Wonewoc trip. The numbers were down a little this year due to Mom's being in poor health. As usual too much tequila was drank on Friday night. There is a direct correlation between how many shots are consumed and how many miles we ride. More tequila = more miles. New tequila song for this year was "Amy where did you go to, I think I could drink (tequila) with you...." Both nights, Dennis, the owner of Chapparal Campground, joined us for a round of tequila shots.

Saturday we rode varying distances to Norwalk with the heavy tequila drinkers leaving from camp and putting on 64.5 miles. Sunday we rode to Reedsburg, but we were too early for the brew pub to be open. We have to get better timing next year. Sunday we rode 25 miles total with a stop in La Valle for lunch. For next year's adventure, we found out from Dennis that one of the outfitters on the Kickapoo river will send a bus to pick us up for canoeing. Floatology University will be back in session after a long hiatus. Nothing beats the sound of a battery operated blender on the bottom of an aluminum canoe in the wilderness!! Thanks to Vonnie for running a great trip!!
