Fontaine of Knowledge

Sometimes skiing gets in the way of Newsletter publishing. In this case, both the President and Newsletter Editor took off on January 21 to ski in Italy and are returning on February 1. So, Fox Tales was put to bed on January 20.

January we had are first trip with 54 people on the Big Snow trip. Thanks to Deb Mossong for leading this great trip. See her wrap article on page 2 in this newsletter. Next, as mentioned, we had a trip to Italy at the end of January with 45 people participating. You'll have to wait until March to find out how that went.

Upcoming, we have Big Snow II on February 10 to 12. This time, we have German Fest at Blackjack on Saturday. Just take the free shuttle from Indianhead to get there and back. Sunday, we will ski Big Powderhorn for the first time in many years. There are still openings for this trip. The pre-trip meeting will be at THE BAR on February 1, and hopefully our bus from O'Hare Airport will be pulling in just in time for the meeting.

Lastly, our Winter Park trip on April 1 to 5 has one opening due to a cancellation. First come first serve.

Tips Up,

Sam Fontaine

Big Snow 2017 Wrap-Up

What another good trip! We left Green Bay and Appleton and headed up north on Friday, Jan. 6th. Good subs, chips, and beverages sustained us for the long drive. John, our bus driver, got us there safely and the bar was open! We were entertained by a piano man. Something different but still pretty good. Saturday dawned very cold. I think the temperature was 2 degrees and windchill much lower. It took some bundling up but everyone was up for the challenge. Since it was so cold, the snow was slow. It snowed pretty much all day and there was some good powder. By early afternoon, most of us were nice and warm in the bars. Then on to the hot tub (it felt good). Then on to dinner (chicken cordon blu, tenderloin tips, veggies, very good). Then on to music in the bar(three piece band).

The next day was clear and not as cold. Blackjack welcomed us with groomed hills and nice runs. We skied until the Packer game started. We watched as a group, did some packer pools, and cheered until half time. We then loaded and listened to the packers win on the bus. One important business item came next: luner award. There were a few nominations, someone putting her helmet on backwards and can't figure out why the goggles were not right, someone taking the wrong skis, someone not knowing they needed a ski pass.....The winner was taking the wrong skis!!! For his award, he got a collectable mini stein! All and all, it was another fun trip and no one got hurt. Ski on!

Debbie Mossong, Esteemed Trip Leader
