President's Column

Fontaine of Knowledge

December means Winter is here.

We have 49 people signed up for the Big Snow Trip on January 6 to 8. That's means really only 3 spots left, so now is the time. Big Snow II, which includes a day at Big Powderhorn, is February 10 to 12. We have 24 signed up so far, so don't delay. Our Winter Park trip is April 1 to 5. We have 33 signed up so that means there are still 7 slots remaining. Our Madonna di Campiglio trip is final. Everyone is paid up and we leave January 21.

On November 2, we had a Fashion Show sponsored by Hergerts of Oshkosh. Our Supermodels (is there any such thing as just plain models these days?), Maryanne Herwig, Tom Sitter, and Nancy Smith showed off this seasons hot new looks from Obermeyer, White Sierra, and others.

To follow up, on Friday November 11 (Veteran's day as it turned out), we had an Open House Happy Hour at Hergerts Sports in Oshkosh. Lots of folks showed up to get a chance to purchase some of the merchandise on display at the Fashion Show as well as skis, accessories, and even a wonderful camp chair rocker with easy-in, easy-out seating. We had a great evening and thanks to Mark Spanbauer and the rest of the people at Hergerts Sports for staying open late and providing snacks and refreshments. Salsa was especially good. Sly Fox provided beer and wine.

Now is the time to sign up for our last event of 2016, our annual Christmas Dinner Party at the Red Ox in Appleton, Wednesday, December 14. See the ad and sign-up sheet on page 4 in this newsletter.

Tips Up,

Sam Fontaine
