Fontaine of Knowledge

Well here I am writing this, and there are still 8 days left in the month of January. But we are packing to leave for Switzerland tomorrow, so this will be short and, I hope, sweet.

We just completed a great trip to Indianhead and Blackjack. Despite some cold temps; no wind, great snow perfectly groomed, no crowds (the wimps!), and finally a great Packer victory made it a memorable week end. Thanks Deb Mossong for heading this up. See her report elsewhere in this newsletter.

Coming up is our Marquette trip February 13 to 15. You don't want to miss this one. Snow is wonderful in the UP and it should be another fantastic weekend.

Finally, our Banff trip is coming up March 19 to 23. Final payments are due for this, so if you have not already done so, now is the time. We can still hold three more spots for another 3 weeks, so if you still want some Out-West skiing, it's there!

Gotta run! My suitcase awaits. See you all when we return.

WINTER

INDIANHEAD: BIG SNOW/BIG COLD

Well, another successful ski trip. We got off to a good start as we entered the lodge at Indianhead and the music was playing! Some stayed out and enjoyed the music while others got their rest for the next day. On Saturday, the forecast was for a high of 2°. The sun cooperated very well and it did seem warmer; at least until about 3:00. That's when a lot of skiers came into the bar to warm up. We had one skier go down to the gift shop. She bought a "Stormy Cromer" hat. I saw this and promptly went and bought one also. In 10 minutes another shopper went down. All told, there were 6 hats sold. We should have asked for a group rate! We listened to some good music, had a great dinner and a lot of us sat in the lounge to watch football. Nice and warm by the fire. The next day it was another cold one. This time the sun stayed in so Blackjack was chilly. The ski conditions were great though. I went into the bar to save places for the big Packer game at noon. Packer pools were set up and we all had a great time cheering them on to a close but effective victory. All in all, the trip was fun. I don't think I got any complaints, but I also did not have any reception on my phone! SKI ON!

Deb Mossong- Trip Leader

Since Deb's arm was in a cast, she did not ski. So I will add that the snow at Indianhead and Blackjack was perfectly groomed and soft. Since the cold forecast chased the fair-weather types away, we had both mountains virtually to ourselves. The corduroy lasted all day long. Thanks Deb! And thanks for the Packer victory as well!
