Greeting from France! Well, at the time of writing, I am not actually in France, but I will be when you read this.

Last month we had 2 meetings, both pre-trip meetings. On January 4, we had our pre-trip meeting for the Big Snow trip to Snow River Resort, the former Indianhead and Black Jack. Two days later we departed, and 43 people had a weekend of beautiful weather and perfect ski conditions, led by Doug Main. Read all about it in the pages of this newsletter.

On January, 18, we had our pre-trip meeting for the Meribel France and Barcelona trip. Trip departed on January 27. Next month you can find out all about it.

Deb and I took a personal trip on Friday, January 13 to ski Big Powderhorn, our next Sly Fox trip. Again, ski conditions are excellent!

February 1 will be our next meeting and another pre-trip meeting for the Big Powder trip. While Deb Bramschreiber, the trip leader, will be with us in France, Julie Buechner will handle this meeting. This trip will be going to Big Powderhorn Mountain on February 10 thru 12, 2023. We are staying at the Quality Inn in Ironwood, MI that includes daily breakfast, beautiful indoor pool & hot tub. A wonderful dinner is planned for Saturday night and will be at the Caribou Lodge at Big Powderhorn. Besides 2 days of skiing at Big Powderhorn, we will have Gluwein on the hill on Saturday and Fondue party Sunday afternoon at the upstairs of the Gun Barrel lodge at Big Powderhorn. Don't miss the opportunity to experience this great trip. Spots are still available.

February 15 will be our next meeting, and it will be time to start thinking about officer nominations for next year. Also, our season ending Spring Banquet will be at Van Abels in Hollandtown.

Big Snow I Trip Recap

Hello everyone,

The first ski trip of the year was a great one! Even with the changing of hands at the resort the trip was a huge success. Thanks again to Deb Bramschreiber for all her hard work with the Snow River Resort to make the trip seamless.

Saturday at Jackson Creek Summit (Indian Head) the conditions for the weekend could not have been much better. Temps in the mid 20's, perfectly groomed runs, short lift lines and a great bunch of people to enjoy the weekend with. Lines were so short it seemed like our group was the only one on the hill. It was great to see everyone in their groups enjoying the company of friends and family. Different groups would join up together for a while share stories and move on to the next adventure. Big Dave Rooyakkers seemed to have a slight mishap at one of the lift loading areas and thanks to a jokester of a lift operator and his ski crew's harassment, it helped Dave win the Lunar award for the weekend! Thanks for the great story! We capped off the day with a cheese and sausage social and a little football on the TV before dinner in the lobby of the lodge. Dinner was good as always with salad, Beef tips, Chicken cordon blue and a brownie that was awesome!

Sunday, everyone was right on time to load the bus, and no one was left behind (unless they wanted to be). Once again conditions were ideal for Midwest skiing. The lines on Sunday were even shorter and every time you were at the lift loading area you would meet someone from the club! After a great day and weekend of Skiing everyone seemed ready to head back and the bus was loaded early, and we were on our way back! Great stories were shared for the Lunar award, but ultimately Dave's story was the best. With a quick stop at Culver's, we were on our way home and with our bus driver Larry's help we could listen to the Packer game on the way home.

Thanks again to everyone that joined in on the trip and helped when needed. Let's hope February Big Powder (Big Powderhorn Mt.) is even better!
