KRAMER'S REMARKS...

Happy New Year...

It seems like yesterday that the Board and Volunteer Chairs began organizing our ski trips. Well, the time is now here!!!

Our first trip of the year to Big Snow is filled and ready to go. In the spirit of the Holidays, Nile Beck (who won the 50/50 at the Christmas Party) has offered to provide delicious chicken wings at our next meeting. The wings will be ready to be served around 7:00 pm at the January 8th meeting... which also will be our informational meeting for the Big Snow Trip. Lisa and Keith Breu have been busy preparing for a great time on the trip. Trip information will be provided at the meeting and e-mailed to you.

We will have only one meeting in January, due to a scheduling conflict at The Bar. The next meeting will be on February 5th. This will be the informational meeting for our next trip to Marquette. We still have room available on this trip, so don't hesitate in signing up for this great trip. This ski trip is February 7-9... so check your calendars.

As we begin the new year, I would like to thank everyone that has stepped up and helped with the Club. We could not have reached this point in the year without all of you participating... from signing up for trips, bringing up the beer and greeting people at the meetings, to being trip leaders, working for marketing, and much, much more. All of your efforts have paid off so far. The exciting part... we have 25 new members and 33 returning members (returning refers to not being a member from the previous year)... 58 new faces. Please take a little time to make them feel a part of this great organization.

So.....Bring on the snow!!!

Dar Kramer
