Newsletter Editorial

From the President

It has been a very dry summer and I guess someone's rain dance has worked. The rain was welcomed by the gardens & yards.

The Board has been meeting monthly. These are open meetings. We are definitely going to Aspen next year in March; we just don't know which week. We have been having difficulty getting answers from our preferred property in Aspen, The Gant. I will be calling every day in July until we get an answer. As soon as we get the week nailed down, we can get airline quotes. Look for the ad in the August newsletter.

Gelandesprung does have their Western trip scheduled without pricing. They have chosen Big White in British Columbia in Canada. It will be a split trip with either Friday to Friday or Saturday to Saturday, January 26 or 27 to February 2 or 3. Stay tuned for further details.

We have received some information from Snowriver (formerly Indianhead/Blackjack) and waiting for all of the contracts to put it all together. We are also waiting on contracts for the Big Powderhorn trip in February. As soon as we get our Midwest trips put together, you'll be the first to know.

You may have gathered from all of this that ski trip planning is especially difficult this season. The rebound from the Covid era seems to have left ski area, lodging, and airline managements unable to make decisions. Knowledgeable industry veterans have retired or otherwise left and the newbie's are befuddled. They will get their acts together if we keep after them, which we are doing.

At Sly Fox, our next event is a Summer Sunset Cruise on the Fox River in Appleton on Thursday, August 23 from 6:30 to 8:00 pm. See the ad on page 6 in this month's newsletter.

MUSIC, WINE, SUDS & FRIENDS

Ledgestone Winery/Gnarley Cedar Brewery
Sly Foxes & Friends gathered on June 14th

It was a beautiful night with great entertainment from the Erin Krebs Quartet/Jazzin' by the Vines. Erin's voice with the accompaniment of her guitarist husband and two professional musicians playing the string base and drums made it a night we all enjoyed.

Don't pass up a chance to enjoy their great music.

Some did take a ride on the Fox River Trail prior to settling in for a bite to eat and a beverage.

Thank you all that joined in and especially to Deb Boden for a great job organizing the night.

Cruise River Tyme Too in
