A great group of skiers departed Appleton with a few loading in Green Bay. With our belly full, we arrived at Indianhead Lodge in time to take in the entertainment Friday and meet up with a couple of those that drove.

Prior to arriving, they had some fresh snow. That made skiing Indianhead Saturday great. Well, no wind, a little cold, but tolerable with a few breaks.

Saturday night after a great dinner at the lodge, the majority of us loaded the big black school bus to Blackjack Loggers Lounge. The band "IV Play" was outstanding, with graphics setting the stage and a three hour big show with no breaks. Then back to Dudleys, more dancing with another great band.

Early Sunday we loaded the bus to Big Powderhorn Mt. with the temperature rising and the sun warming the snow, we couldn't have asked for more. We all gathered at the Big Bird Wine Hut for a warmer upper of Gluhwein & S'mores. It was a really a fun group and equally fun to catch up with our ski buddies.

Of course there is always the inevitable. The Lunar award....this year our newbie Randy G. was the winner! Ladies room was the scene of the Lunar. Three gals were chatting at the sinks when, nature calls for Randy. After getting a few feet into the ladies room, OOOPS wrong one! For the flakey move, he was presented with a Powderhorn Snowflake and the remainder of the fireball. He fits right in.....

One more honorable mention, new member Jeannie O., getting ready to ski, opened up her boot bag and found one of hers & one of her husbands' boots. To the rental shop she went.

Many thanks, Trip Assistant Doug Main for all of your help, those that pitched in to load & unload the bus, Mark D. for Super Bowl telecast on the bus and especially all of you that made this weekend memorable.
