The 2022-2023 season is in the books. Now we begin the 2023-2024 season.

On Friday, April 21, we had our Spring Banquet at Van Abel's of Hollandtown. After our chicken and beef tips dinner, we were entertained by Russ Reiser on guitar for the remainder of the evening. 62 Sly Foxes and friends were there.

We now begin the process of planning our next season. Part of that will be the CMSC Trip Seminar in Rosemont, IL on May 20. Several board members will be attending.

Speaking of new board members, Greg Buss has agreed to serve as Advisor for the season, so we now have 5 full voting board members.

And we also have a social Committee. Ann Hiltunen, Deb Boden, Lynn Sommers and Deb Bramschreiber are serving on this and they already have some summer events lined up. See the advertisements for these in this newsletter.

Another sad bit of news, long time Sly Fox member Don Winrich passed away in April. Don was a past trip leader of Western Trips, 1991 Sun Valley comes to mind. He also frequently shared his ski house at Big Powderhorn with Sly Foxes. Rest in peace, Don.

Sly Fox Spring Banquet April 21, 2023 is in the books!

The main reason for the Spring Banquet, to wish the 2022-23 season a farewell & induct the 2023-24 Sly Fox Board/Officers, they are as follows:

President Sam Fontaine

Vice President Randy Zurbuchen

Treasurer Julie Buechner

Secretary Deb Bramschreiber

Advisor Greg Buss was appointed to this position

Honestly, it was one more excuse for 62 of us to get together, have fun & celebrate our GREAT CLUB! How fortunate we are to have the benefits of our club and make lasting friendships.

Ann Hiltunen constructed an idea board, passing out post-its for ideas to put into sections of the idea board. That will help to find out some of the things that interest our club members. She also stated we could use someone to take pictures at the events & trips. So....volunteer for any position.

We have a new social committee formed to help put together events for the summer and topics for our fall meetings. They are Ann Hiltunen, Deb Boden, Lynn Sommers along with myself, Deb Bramschreiber. Of course, the more the merrier!

Great food & service at Van Abels was enjoyed by all. Drawings for a lot of door prizes were given out to those lucky winners. The change of our original entertainment was replaced by someone most of us have heard before. Russ Reiser, original member of Vic Ferrari was able to get us on our feet with great music.

Thank you for attending, I hope you had as much fun!
