Our trips are all set and sign-up sheets are in this newsletter and posted on the website. This might become known as the year of the post-pandemic sticker-shock ski trip. You will see that the Snowriver trip price is over $400. After some tense negotiations, this is the best we could do. Snowriver told us we were getting a better deal than any other group. They have remodeled all of the bathrooms at the Lodge, and have installed a new 6-pak high speed lift. And they are keeping Dudley's bar open this year at the Lodge. They feel the price is justified, so we will just have to go and find out for ourselves.

Aspen has also seen a big increase, mainly due to lodging cost. The advent of airbnb and vrbo have made property managers have to rethink their pricing strategy. Almost all the condos we stay at on western trips have individual owners. The last few years, owners have been pulling their units out of the rental blocks handled by the property managers, and renting them themselves through airbnb and vrbo and getting more money than they got from the property managers. So property managers have had to increase rates to keep them in the rental pool. Many of the units we stay in are now going for over a million dollars, so keep that in mind.

The good news? Big Powderhorn is still reasonably priced at $350. Bruce Noren, the Big Powderhorn owner still likes us, and is happy to have our business.

RIVER TYME TOO CRUISE AUG. 24, 2024

A group of Sly Fox Members shipped off Thursday at 6pm River Tyme Two dock. We were greeted by the Captain & his First Mate for our Sunset Cruise. The boat was really nice with soft cushions on their teak comfortable benches.

We enjoyed beverages of beer, wine & even prosecco while we cruised. Since this was an open cruise we met some great people. Some even visiting from Ireland. It was a lively group to say the least.

We were able to bring some munchies on board while we cruised, admiring the beautiful nature we snacked & quenched our thirst. We saw many deer of all ages munching on the lawns of some beautiful homes that are built along the river. Along with the homes, the beautiful nature reflecting off of the calm river was enjoyed by all.

It was so enjoyable, maybe next year the club could organize a private cruise for a group party. The First Mate informed us that music & food is welcome to enjoy while they will stop & hang out. It was arranged for a stop at Kimberly's Sunset Park bathroom (that was not needed) our turnaround point for the cruise.

Thanks to Ann Hiltunen for suggesting & contacting River Tyme Tours.

Also to Lynn Sommers on the dock, greeted all of us with our very own Sly Fox Flag. Great way to promote the club. Can't forget to thank Sam for his help to tote the munchies on & off the boat. Next time we will have to pick a gathering point prior to departure so we can enjoy the sangria I brought.

Everyone, please support the events of our Sly Fox Club. It is always great to connect with fellow members, friends & potential new members.

Again, step up to get involved in your club & share your passion.

Thank you again,
Deb
