From the President

The Spring Banquet is this Friday, May 2. I hope to see many of you there. It is always a fun evening.

We are in the planning stages for next year's ski trips. Let us know where you would like to go. We'd also like suggestions on future guest speakers; speakers you would like to have at our membership meetings and also if there are past speakers that you would like to have again. We have been struggling with low turnout at the meetings. We welcome ideas that you think might boost our turnout.

If someone has an event they would like to organize this off-season for the ski club members and non-members, let one of the board members know. It could be maybe a bike ride or a kayak trip or a wine tasting, golfing or boating event. These are only a few ideas.

The new membership starts on May 1. See the sign-up on page 3 of this newsletter. Have a great summer.

See you Friday!

Greg Buss

Copper Mountain Trip Report

Sly Fox Ski & Snowboard Club went to Copper Mountain, Colorado from March 30 to April 4. We were expecting warm, sunny spring skiing. What we got instead was 4 days of winter, with daily snow fall and freshies every morning of 4 days of skiing. We had 46 people on the trip.

We started very early on March 30 with a bus departure from The Woods in Green Bay at 12:45am, followed by the rest of the crew at Appleton pick up at 1:30 am. That got us to Milwaukee Airport at 3:45 am to check in for our 5:30 am flight to Denver. All told 39 people on the plane, which arrived on time and we met a couple more people who flew in from Florida the night before. Then it was off to Copper.

We always stop at Applejacks Liquor and King Supers for supplies on the way. This time we arrived at 9:30 am, a half hour before Applejacks opened, so we had plenty of time for grocery shopping and a little breakfast beforehand. So, we arrived at the Cambria Hotel at Copper just before noon. Surprisingly, quite a few people were able to get their rooms right away, and by 2 pm, everyone was in. We met 5 more people who drove out at the hotel, which brought us to 46.

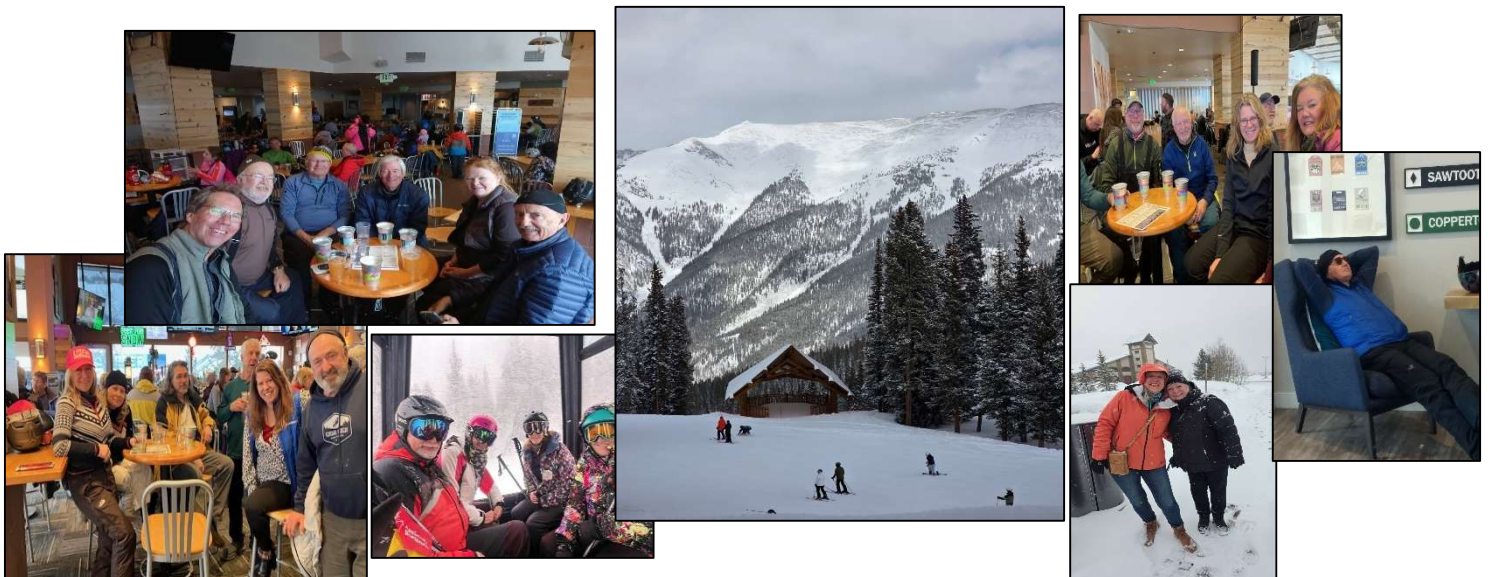

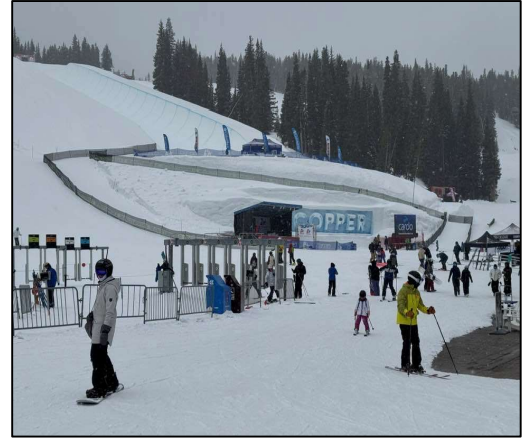

The Cambria Hotel is quite nice, with daily hot breakfast buffet included, its own restaurant, hot tubs, and walking distance to the lifts at Center Village, as well as the free buses to East Village and West Village. The group sampled various restaurants in the Center Village during the week, from Mexican to Asian, to Italian. And a few took the free Summit Stage bus to Frisco for dinner.

Apres Ski took place every day at Jack's at the Center Village base. Unfortunately, the live music was done for the season, but we enjoyed the fun of getting together after a day of skiing.

Oh yeah, the skiing! Fresh snow every day with tons of variety for everyone. A lot of our hard cores, and we had quite a few, were in the upper bowls. Some clicked off vertical like it was going out of style, with up to 37,000 vertical in a single day. Four great days of skiing.

So, with our 4 days wrapped up, we met at the Cambria Thursday evening for departure instructions and left over drinks and snacks. Friday morning, we loaded up the bus and headed for Denver airport and the ride home. So that was the ski season! Time to start planning for next year.
